

College Hill Music Conservatory

As a service to the church and community, the purpose of the College Hill Music Conservatory is to offer private music lessons taught by Christian instructors in a Christian environment. Interested in lessons for organ or piano? Contact our instructor, Nathan Wille, SPC.

Organ or Piano

Nathan Wille

319-930-2259

nathan.wille@ctsfw.edu

Nathan Wille, SPC has been a church organist since he was twelve years old. He is certified by the American Guild of Organists in Service Playing. His passion for the hymnody of the church and his love for the liturgy have cultivated in him a desire to help raise the next generation of organists. He has a fun teaching style that lends itself to a shared appreciation of sacred music. He firmly believes that "to God alone be all the glory."